Be Part of Europe's First Premium Seat Show

Set your calendar for October 11 and 12 at the Amba Marble Arch Hotel in the heart of London for Europe's first premium seat show, organised by the Association of Luxury Suite Directors (ALSD).

In the U.S., the ALSD has been running premium seat shows for 28 years. Based on market demand, there is now a need for such a show in Europe.

"Nearly everything that is truly innovative in a modern day stadium begins at the premium seat level. The use of flat screens started here. Premium seats are a consumer test market for high-end customers."

— Bill Dorsey, Chairman, ALSD

"Sponsorship works best not as a numbers game but as a memory game. When done right, sponsorship creates lasting memories. Premium seating helps create what has become almost a cliché in the venue marketplace: Fan Experience."
